Words and Music
By BERT ARNOLD.

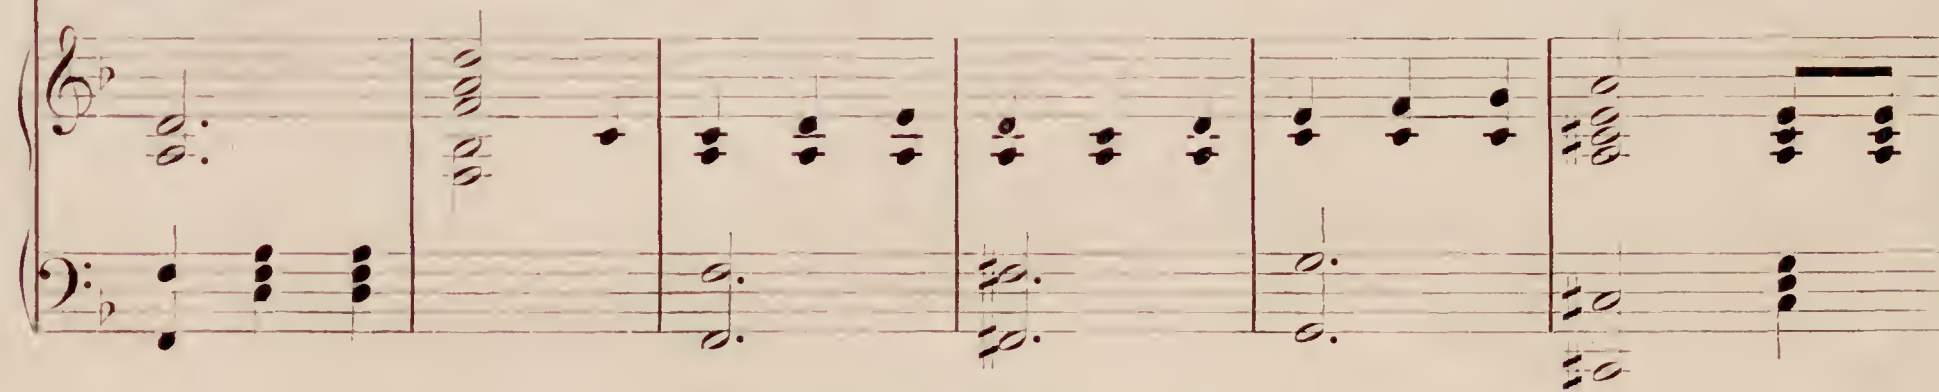

INTRODUCTION.

1. When life's not worth liv - ing And all pleasures fail And you feel its a wea - ry old
2. When up in your air-ship And free as a lark You are mon-arch of all you sur -

earth,
vey, When sweet-hearts are bor - ing and friends be - come stale, And you Just sweep off to Par - is or As - bur - y Park. Or don't know the mean-ing of mirth, When your tem-per is rag-ged and nerves are on dash up to Mars for the day, You are sure of a welcome where-ev - er you edge, And you think that your life is ac - curst, Just roll out your stop, Leave the deuce and the de - vil to pay, There are no speed bi - plane and go for a sail, You'll on - ly be killed at the worst.

li - mits nor ae - ro - plane cops, Up there in the great Milk - y Way.

Up In Your Old Biplane.

CHORUS.

Up, up, up o - ver cloud-land of ro - sy hue,

Up, up, up in - to sky-land of az - ure blue,

Leav-ing dull troub-les be - low you Leav-ing the sweethearts that bore you

Free as the birds sail - ing o'er you, Up in your old bi - plane.

CHORUS.

Let me swing you to that lov - ing hu - lu Straight from Hono - lu - lu Let me try and show you There's noth - ing quite so great as hu - lu - hu - lu, Take a chance and let me glide you, slide you While I slow - ly guide you Thro' this sav - age dance that will set you in a trance, This in - vit - ing pass - ion - ate, ex - cit - ing hu - hu - lu dance.
